Additional application materials required by the department or the graduate institute (please refer to 2. Criteria of Each Department or Graduate Institute).
Please note that the “Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language” mentioned in part II of the Criteria of Each Department/Graduate Institute was held by the Steering Committee for the Test of Proficiency-Huayu (SC-TOP). According to regulations announced by the Ministry of Education on August 4, the Test of Proficiency-Huayu (TOP) has since changed its name to “Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language” (TOCFL). Also, a new version of the Test has been instituted since 2011. For more information and the main Chinese Proficiency Tests Comparison Tables, please refer to the website: http://www.sc-top.org.tw.

Please provide the actual mailing address for sending the Acceptance/Non-acceptance letter. Applicants must assume full responsibility of the consequences if the Acceptance/Non-acceptance letter is undeliverable due to an incorrect mailing address.

Admitted applicants can enroll only after they have submitted the photocopies of their diploma, certificate of degree conferral (applicable to the applicants with the bachelor’s degree or above obtaining from the schools in Mainland China which are specifically recognized by MOE) as well as transcripts and other relevant academic certificates which are all verified by the related offices according to the following regulations.
The students whose degrees are conferred by the foreign schools (excluding the schools in Hong Kong, Macau, and Mainland China) shall follow “Regulations Regarding the Assessment and Recognition of Foreign Academic Credentials for Institutions of Higher Education.” The diploma and the complete transcripts are required to be verified by the Taiwan Overseas Representative Offices in the country of the original schools. If the original documents are not in Chinese or English, the Chinese or the English translations are also required to be verified by the Taiwan Overseas Representative Offices.

The students whose degrees are conferred by the prescribed schools in Hong Kong or Macau shall follow the “Academic Credential Verification and Accreditation Methods adopted in Hong Kong and Macao” for the requirement of relevant academic certificates.

The students whose degrees are conferred by the schools in Mainland China which are specifically recognized by MOE shall follow the “The Regulations Governing the Accreditation of Schools in Mainland China” for the requirement of relevant academic certificates.

If Chinese language requirements of the departments or the graduate institutes are in accordance with the regulations in “NCCU Admission Guidelines for International Students,” students admitted to these departments or graduate institutes are required to provide a photocopy of the certificate of the Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language at Level 2 or above at the time of enrollment (please refer to 1.12 for an overview of Chinese Language Requirements).

(4) Application Instructions

According to NCCU Admission Guidelines for International Students, newly admitted students, excluding the students enrolled in English-taught programs, are required to pass the TOCFL, Level 2. Students failing to provide a TOCFL certificate for the required level will have to pay tuition for and pass 4 terms of Special Courses at the NCCU Chinese Language Center before graduation. Students, who provide the certificates of Level 2 or above during their studies at NCCU, do not need to take these Special Courses in the NCCU Chinese Language Center. Students enrolled in departments or graduate institutes requiring the TOCFL level higher than Level 2 need to fulfill the requirements outlined in the regulations of the departments or the graduate institutes before graduation (please refer to 1.12 for an overview of Chinese Language Requirements).

(5) NCCU has implemented “NCCU Rules Governing Foreign Language Graduation Examinations” and “National Chengchi University Executive Regulations for Service Learning and Practical Courses.” Undergraduate students are required to fulfill these requirements before graduation.

(6) According to the regulations of the MOE (Ministry of Education), those who have been approved to make Initial Household Registration, Moving-in Registration, or Acquisition or Restoration of Nationality during their study in Taiwan and have thus ceased to possess the status as foreign students, shall be expelled from any school they are attending. Moreover, those who withdraw or are expelled from school in the Republic of China due to misbehavior, unacceptable academic performance or conviction of a penal crime may not thereafter apply again for admission under “Regulations Regarding International Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan.” Violation of this regulation will result in the rejection of an application for admission.

(7) According to regulations of Centers for Disease Control (CDC), Dept. of Health, Executive Yuan, R.O.C. (Taiwan), since January 2009 those who apply for a resident visa have to submit a medical report showing immunity to measles and rubella or proof of vaccination against measles and rubella. Please refer to the BOCA website (Bureau of Consular Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, R.O.C. (Taiwan)): http://www.boca.gov.tw for details.

(8) 依菸害防制法規定，大專校院室內場所全面禁止吸菸；室外場所除吸煙區外，不得吸菸。

According to the Tobacco Hazard Control Act, smoking is completely banned in any indoor areas of the college campus and prohibited outdoors as well, except for designated smoking areas.

(9) 本申請入學依教育部「外國學生來臺就學辦法」、本校「學則」及「國立政治大學外國學生入學辦法」辦理。前述辦法如有修正，將公布於網頁上。

International students’ applications for admission are based on “Regulations Regarding Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan” formulated by the Ministry of Education (MOE), “NCCU Study Regulations” and “NCCU Admission Guidelines for International Students.” If there should be any changes in the aforesaid regulations, there would be timely announcements on the respective websites.
