

Stay apart, stay healthy.

Social distancing can be exempted once if both parties wear face masks properly. However, it is still strongly recommended to wear masks all the time when visiting crowded and indoor places.