The image shows a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet titled "CoursesList - Microsoft Excel". The spreadsheet contains a list of courses with columns for Course #, Point, Course Name, Instructor, Department, Credit, Language, and Information of alteration. A red box highlights the first row of data, and a red text overlay reads "1. Press 'Ctrl+F' to search 按 Ctrl+F 來開始搜尋". A search dialog box is open over the spreadsheet, with a red box around the search criteria field containing the text "Type the course keywords" and a red text overlay "2 打關鍵字". The dialog box also has buttons for "全部尋找(F)", "找下一個(F)", and "關閉".

課程簡介

Course Description

The purpose of this course is to analyze Mr. Warren Buffett's investment strategy and methodology from a sustainable business perspective. A sustainable business is defined and understood as a business with long-term version for generating corporate profits and promoting community sustainability preferably at a global level. If possible, I'd also like to organize a summer camp held at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (UNL) and invite some business leaders to further discuss the prospect of corporate sustainability.
